The Glissmanns are living in Malawi. Jinhyeog is involved in a local Primary School as a music teacher. Volker works off-campus as a programme developer for TEEC, the Theological Education by Extension College in Johannesburg, South Africa, and does grassroots theological training in Malawi.

TEEnet - The Story of God and His World - published

At the (very) end of April, we finally published the first course that was exclusively written for TEEnet. The course is called The Story of God and His World. The course is a six-week/six-lesson overview course of the meta-narrative of the Bible. The course is written in the tradition of a survey course but with a focus on both the telling of the grand narrative as well as the key themes that weave in and out of the biblical stories to form the grand narrative of Creation – Rebellion – God’s Promise – Christ – God’s Mission and New Creation.

The course is part of TEEnet’s vision to make TEE courses and learning material available without restrictions to allow access and the use of courses where they are needed to build up the church. One of the problems we have here in Africa is that quality learning material is not freely available but needs to be bought and shipped, making the material unaffordable. We used to have material in the 1970s/80s that could be shared, but now it is restricted.

The course is a classical TEE course designed for individuals to study at home and then discuss in a group meeting. However, the course could also be used for group study in group meetings. The course is free and can be downloaded and used by everyone. The course details can be found here: <https://teenet.org/tee-courses/teenet-tee-courses/> or directly here: <https://teenet.org/tee-courses/the-story-of-god-and-his-world/>.

We also have a blog post about it: <https://teenet.org/blog/the-story-of-god-and-his-world/>

Prayer Points

- Join us in thanking God for publishing the first of TEEnet’s open-access courses.
- Pray for us as we now think about a follow-up course that we – in discussions with others – find to be the most needed course.
- Please continue to pray for the health and safety of the whole family.
